While nobody is watching, COVID-19 may allow Russia to crush Ukraine
Chornobyl zone on fire

While nobody is watching, COVID-19 may allow Russia to crush Ukraine.
Curve of Russian propaganda on coronavirus goes up, narratives recur and multiply.

StopFakeNews with Marko Suprun (No. 279).

‘Liberal Swine’: How the Kremlin exploits the pandemic for propaganda.

Ukrainian firefighters struggle to control Chornobyl wildfires (video). Smoke blows across northern Ukraine, border into Belarus. The fires are currently threatening Pripyat and the Chornobyl power plant.

Left: Chornobyl area on fire (photos), video
Right: A Ukrainian firefighter takes a break after a sleepless night in Chornobyl area

Justice under quarantine
Coronavirus fight causes freedom rollback in Eastern Europe

Coronavirus fight causes freedom rollback in Eastern Europe.

Kremlin Watch Briefing: How is the pandemic being abused by authoritarian regimes?
Justice under quarantine. Interview with Ukraine’s judiciary spokesperson.

The language bogeyman. Someone is trying to turn language into an issue yet again. What are they doing and why?

Impact of COVID-19 on global economy and Ukraine’s foreign trade.
‘All for all’ detainee exchange to occur this week

Soldiers brace to fight a silent, deadly enemy

Russia's hybrid military forces on April 12 mounted three attacks on Ukrainian army positions in Donbas with one Ukrainian soldier reported as killed in action (KIA) and another one as wounded in action (WIA).

On the front line in Ukraine, soldiers brace to fight a silent, deadly enemy.

Number of COVID-19 infected in Ukrainian Army grows by 19 – Medical Forces Command.

Ambassadors call for peace in Ukraine, Russia reacts with falsehoods.

United States continues security assistance to Ukraine despite Covid-19 – embassy.

Left: Russian oil tankers pollute Black, Azov Seas
Right: Russia lost another modern Zastava drone in Donbas: list of military units operating this UAV

#StayHome and help Russia’s Ukrainian political prisoners

UNESCO states deterioration of situation in Crimea.

Russia imprisons father, son & son-in-law for their faith and civic activism in occupied Crimea.

Ukrainian espionage incident highlights ongoing Russian naval shortcomings.

Moscow creates new ‘Cossack’ paramilitary units for possible use against Ukraine.

Number of Donbas residents ready for any compromises for sake of peace decreases.

‘All for all’ detainee exchange to occur this week.

Russia to use paramilitaries and Cossacks to enforce Covid-19 isolation in occupied Crimea.

Ukrainian jailed in fast-track political trial in Russian-occupied Crimea.

Russian proxy Donbas republic sentences charity worker with HIV to 11 years.

Lawyers and civic activists condemn 13-year treason sentence for former Ukrainian POW.

#StayHome and help Russia’s Ukrainian political prisoners held in dangerously unsanitary conditions.
IMF’s conditions vs Kolomoyskyi: Ukraine at the crossroads
Ukraine’s work shutdown threatens unemployment crisis

“Anti-crisis” budget, Maidan activists persecuted and more – uacrisis weekly update #14, 6 – 12 April.

Week’s balance: Gov’t announces economy restart, launching citizen tracking application, while inflation keeps rising.

IMF’s conditions vs Kolomoyskyi: Ukraine at the crossroads.

Ukraine’s 2020 Budget is changing due to the Coronavirus.

Rada fails to pass all draft resolutions blocking farmland bill.

Parliament opens access to geospatial data for Ukrainians.

Coup d’état or necessary measures: Ukraine’s new quarantine restrictions spark opposing views.

Running in the park and trips out of town: what Ukrainians can and cannot do during quarantine.

Outside of Kyiv, is Ukraine prepared for coronavirus upsurge?

Ukrainian government presents its lockdown exit strategy.

“People have only 4 weeks of cushioning” – Ukraine’s work shutdown threatens unemployment crisis.

One third of small, micro businesses in Ukraine to reduce number of employees.

Ukraine dispatches five tonnes of disinfectants to Italy.

Ukrainian journalist savagely beaten during Euromaidan faced with dubious Maidan “murder” charges.

Interior minister Avakov defends ex-MP Chornovol in murder implication.

What judicial reform in Ukraine? Notorious Poltava judge gets lavish golden handshake instead of dismissal.

Venediktova opens five criminal cases against Poroshenko.

Ukraine launches TV classes to provide distance education during quarantine.

The why, where, and how of recycling in Ukraine.

Emergency Service: Almost 6,000 fires extinguished over past week.

Two Ukrainain companies win Red Dot award for design
Accelerator offers new way to bridge Kyiv to London

Petcube and Jammy win the Red Dot award in product design.

Forbes updates the world’s richest people list. It includes 6 Ukrainians.

Bridging Kyiv to London, an accelerator offers startups a new way to go global.
Human Rights Documentary event to become online fest
A narrator takes you on guided tours of seven open air museums

Quarantine pushes Human Rights Documentary Event to become Ukraine’s First Online Film Festival.

A narrator takes you on guided tours of seven open air museums around Ukraine, sharing history, tales, and more. Travel back centuries and touch the past.

CONTACT INFORMATION

Press-center of Civic Sector of EuroMaidan
Kateryna Maksym +38(066) 6906927
katerynamaksym69@gmail.com

To subscribe to the newsletter: https://bit.ly/2DzsRF6

www.facebook.com/hrom.sektor.euromaidan
Follow us on twitter @maidan_go

Previous issues of our newsletter are available at National University of Kyiv-Mohyla Academy electronic repository http://ekmair.ukma.edu.ua/handle/123456789/12250

If you wish to receive this newsletter, or if you would like to unsubscribe, please email Kateryna Maksym at katerynamaksym69@gmail.com