The world greets the new Ukrainian President

New challenges lie ahead as Poroshenko takes office

The White House says U.S. President Barack Obama will meet with Ukrainian President-elect Petro Poroshenko on June 4 in Warsaw, three days before the newly elected leader is due to be inaugurated. It is unusual for a U.S. president to meet with a head of state before that individual takes office. (Eng)

Ukraine's Election Exposes Putin's Lies:

Despite the best efforts of Vladimir Putin and his terrorist commandos in the eastern Donbas region, Ukraine's presidential elections did in fact take place on May 25th, under conditions that international observers concur were fair and free. The successful elections prove the failure of Russian propaganda which insisted that Ukraine is supposedly on the verge of collapse, - states prof. Alexander J. Motyl. (Eng)

Ilya Mechnikov (15 May 1845 Kharkiv oblast, Ukraine – 15 July 1916 Paris, France) was a Ukrainian biologist, zoologist and protozoologist, best known for his pioneering research into the immune system. Mechnikov received the Nobel Prize in Medicine in 1908, shared with Paul Ehrlich, for his work on phagocytosis. He is also credited by some sources with coining the term gerontology in 1903, for the emerging study of aging and longevity. Being of Romanian-Jewish origin, in most international sources he is named as a "Russian scientist". (Eng) <http://goo.gl/YvkKvf> And <http://goo.gl/1mjyru>
